

Cambodia Creative Arts Mission Trip

April 6-18, 2026 (approx.)

Serve and be the hands and feet of Jesus through your musical gifts and talents.

Join Amanda Young and Kingdom Tours for a two-week Creative Arts Mission Trip to Cambodia, partnering with a Christian NGO to support and invest in their arts program. You will work with children aged 6-16 who are orphans, at risk, or survivors of trafficking - bringing joy, hope, and encouragement through music education.

Trip Highlights:

- Serve and mentor children aged 6-16 in a range of instruments - piano, flute, clarinet, saxophone, violin, viola, trumpet, handbells, recorders, and drums.
- Partner with a Christian NGO to support and invest in their arts program.
- Learn about Cambodia's history, culture, and faith.
- Pre-trip preparation and cultural training to equip you for travel.
- Visit other Christian NGOs serving vulnerable children and women.
- Fully guided by Amanda Young (15+ years experience leading Cambodia mission teams). All logistics, itinerary, and accommodation arranged for you.

Trip Details:

Cost: $3,000 AUD Includes: Return private airport transfers, 4-5 star hotels (twin share), daily breakfast, 3 team catered dinners, daily bottled water, laundry, guided tours and entry into key tourist attractions, private drivers for daily travel.

Excludes: Return flights, travel insurance, tourist visa, some meals, personal expenses

Requirements: Blue Card or Police Check, musical proficiency, ability to teach children.

Register Your Interest:

Spaces are limited! Email: kingdomtoursamandayoung@gmail.com with your name and musical background.

